

THE SOUTH AFRICAN LAW JOURNAL

VOL 139 PART 1

2022

FOUNDED 1884

TABLE OF CONTENTS (OVERLEAF)

ARTICLES

- Slapping down SLAPP suits in South Africa: The need for legislative protection and civil society action by Zeenat Emmamally
- Problems relating to the formation of online contracts: A comparative perspective by Sanmarie van Deventer
- A comparative analysis of the Twin Peaks model of financial regulation in South Africa and the United Kingdom by Mmiselo Freedom Qumba
- Disclosure of corporate political donations and expenditure to shareholders: Why South Africa should follow the United Kingdom's legislative approach by Vela Madlela
- Guilty of being deaf. Kruse v S — paying lip service to the fair-trial rights of hearing-impaired accused persons by Ferdinand Heinrich Hermann Kehrhahn & Jani Charlese de Lange
- Hyperlinking and copyright by Sadulla Karjiker
- Where do we belong? The plight of plaintiffs with small maritime claims by Malcolm Wallis

TRIBUTE

Ben Beinart remembered by William Beinart

BOOK REVIEW

Andrew Stewart, Rosemary Owens, Niall O'Higgins & Anne Hewitt (eds) Internships, Employability and the Search for Decent Work Experience (2021) by Johann Maree